

Tindo Solar

Australian-made renewable energy solutions for residential, commercial and wholesale markets.

Company Profile

Australia's only solar panel manufacturer.

Strategy | SEO | Google Ads | Social Media

Based in South Australia, Tindo Solar is Australia's only solar panel manufacturer. Tindo's mission is to harness the full potential of the Australian sun to deliver efficient, durable, and innovative solar technology.

The Challenge

Tindo Solar faced significant transparency issues with previous digital marketing partners, who often failed to provide clear insights into investment performance and ROI. The company needed a reliable digital marketing partner to improve transparency and deliver consistent, honest reporting to drive better business outcomes.

Our Analysis

Upon reviewing Tindo Solar's digital presence and business goals, we identified key areas for improvement, particularly in SEO, Google Ads, and social media. There was a significant opportunity to enhance visibility and drive more organic traffic through a strategic, data-driven approach to digital marketing.

The Solution

We developed a comprehensive digital marketing strategy tailored to Tindo Solar's needs, focusing on:

| | | |
|--|--|---|
|  Search Engine Optimisation Implemented a targeted SEO strategy, optimized site structure, and developed a high-impact backlink strategy for Tindo Solar. |  Google Ads Refining and expanding Google Ads campaigns to improve ad performance and ROI. |  Social Media Enhancing social media presence to engage with a broader audience as well as running lead form campaigns to drive more leads. |
|--|--|---|

Our strategy emphasised sustainable, long-term growth while aligning with Tindo Solar's overall business objectives. We regularly evaluate the effectiveness of our approach through data analysis, allowing us to adjust and optimise campaigns for maximum impact.
